

I'm alarmed at Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than returning a postcard.

Thank you.
